The Forgers, Marker and Doc.

The cases of Fred. Marker and John Doe, charged with uttering and publishing forged checks, were brought up and disposed of in the Police Court this morning. Two charges were made against Marker and one against Doe, Mr. Buchwaiter appearing as counsel for both. Marker was first brought forward, and the evidence to connect him with the passing of a formi check on the Commercial Bank April 6th was produced.

The paying teller of the bank, James unning, resulted that Marker entered the Cunning, testified that Marker entered the bank on the day named and presented a check of $1,490, signed by Grubb & Hart, which, upon consultation with the book-keeper, he concluded was a forgery, and accordingly called an officer.

Mr. Hart, of the firm of Grubb & Hart, next testified that no such check was ever issued by the firm, and the signature on the check was not the signature of either member of the firm.

Without any further evidence Marker was held to bell in $5,000.

Marker and Doe were then tried together on the second charge, and evidence to prove that they had forged checks in their possession, and also chemicals and instruments for producing forged checks, was introduced.

Several witnesses testified to these facts, after which Marker was given a chance to tell his story of injured innocence. The Judge then stated that he had himself seen Doe in a New York Court under the name of Baker on a similar charge, and that there was no need of evidence. He accordingly gave Doe the same sentence which Marker had
